

Players Post

Current Production— Love Begins at Fifty

Rehearsals are well underway for the spring play: - a hilarious farce about how a mid-life crisis gets out of hand when a husband and wife each make plans to liven things up a bit.

The action is fast and furious as the adventures of Anita and Clive unfold.

The play will be performed on 6th and 7th April with a further date to be confirmed shortly.

Tickets will be on sale from early February.

Scripts

If you still have a copy of the pantomime script please could you return it as soon as possible so that it can be returned to the costume shed.

Thank you

Chaperones—we are still recruiting chaperones for this and future productions. Please share among friends and family.

Please speak to Jean Hawksworth who is coordinating or email via the website to leave a message.

Inside this issue:

Current Production	1
Chaperones	1
Christmas	1
Scripts	1
Help needed	2
Music Show	2
Murder Mystery	2

Christmas Thank You's

Congratulations to everyone that was involved in the pantomime which played to packed houses at each performance and made a handsome profit. We received lots of excellent feedback and a very complimentary report from NODA .

Thank you also to Val for organising the Christmas Party, and to Carole and Velma for decorating the Christmas Tree for Langtoft Church Festival.

Help Wanted! 12th March

If you have a couple of hours to spare on Sunday 12th March between 9-30am to 2-00pm we will be sorting out the props cupboard under the stage to bring out what is needed for the play.

Many hands make light work so please could you let Brian or Jackie know if you are able to help.

Thank you

Music Show—Call for Ideas

This year the music show will be loosely based around a theme of the story of the 20th Century.

Lots of ideas already for the “sections” such as the twenties; war songs; space exploration; musical theatre; world travel etc etc. which will lend themselves to creatively putting together the list of songs that we want to incorporate!

With this in mind if you have any suggestions please can you email me with your ideas. It may be something that Players have done in the past, or something that you’ve always wanted to do but it has just never cropped up.

Rehearsal time for the music show is very short and I am hoping to produce a CD in advance for you to familiarise with the tunes.

The show will probably contain a few “big numbers” and several small group performances.

So any ideas welcome—ready steady go!!

Thank you,
Jackie

Murder Mystery in Langtoft 2017

Don’t forget that Langtoft Village Hall Management Committee are holding a Murder Mystery evening on Saturday 25th February 2017.

Some members of Players will be performing the play so will you be coming along and try to guess whodunit??

We’re on the web;
langtoftplayers.co.uk

And finally :-

We are sorry to say that we received a message saying that the hall was left in an untidy state following the pantomime.

It is an unwritten rule that cast members should make sure they take away anything that they have used, or return it to whoever they borrowed it from.

Willing volunteers generally go to the hall to check that all is clean and tidy but were not available this year.

We have sent an apology to LVH and will be producing a checklist so that in future the producer knows what needs to be done and can organise this.

To make contact please email langtoftplayers@gmail.com and your message will be passed on.