In association with Nada

Rehearsals are going strong for the spring play: - a hilarious farce about how a mid-life crisis gets out of hand when a husband and wife each make plans to liven things up a bit.

The action is fast and furious as the adventures of Anita and Clive unfold. Not to be missed!

Tickets are now on sale—if you are able to display a poster please contact Steph via the email address on the back page.

Help Wanted - 12th March

Thank you to everyone who has offered to come along on and help with clearing the under stage cupboard and finding props for the play!

If you have any time to spare on Sunday 12th March between 9-30am to 2-00pm your help would be greatly appreciated.

Many hands make light work so please could you let Brian know if you are able to join us or send a message via langtoftplayers@gmail.com

Thank you

Chaperones—the search for chaperones continues!

Please share among friends and family if you know anyone suitable who would be willing to join our chaperone “bank”.

Please speak to Jean Hawksworth who is coordinating; or email via the website to leave a message.

Pantomime Scripts

We are still missing some “Beauty and the Beast” scripts. If you have a copy please could you contact Michelle Gillet as soon as possible so that the scripts can be returned to the costume shed.

Michelle can be contacted via the general email address

Thank you

Music Show

The broad outline of the show and a CD should be available by the end of March.

Rehearsals will begin on 18th April and show dates are 21st to 24th June.

There will be some chorus numbers and some solos / small groups— hopefully something to please everyone.

Ideas welcome!

To make contact please email langtoftplayers@gmail.com and your message will be passed on to the relevant person

And finally :-

A big thank you to everyone who took part or supported LVHMC Murder Mystery on 25th February 2017.

The hall was packed with super sleuths trying to guess whodunit, and quite a few of them did!

A great evening was had by all and thank you to Vylma for plugging the play in her closing speech!!
