We are full steam ahead with preparations for the music show next month.

It has been put together as a celebration of lifestyles and events of the Twentieth Century told in song—a very varied selection of numbers so there is something for everyone to enjoy.

With a small adult cast and an enthusiastic group of Junior Players, it's all coming together really well.

We hope that those of you that are not able to take part in the show will be able to come along and watch— for the first time we have been able to set up a “meal deal” with the Waggon and Horses to create a total theatre experience for you to enjoy!

Tickets are on sale online and from the box office at 1 Manor Way—Friday night is selling particularly well but with only three performances we hope to perform to a full house every night, so please buy your tickets now and spread the word among your friends.

We need some help behind the scenes too; please see overleaf for details.

A Century of Sound—WANTED

Help Wanted

Joan Thompson has kindly offered to organise front of house for the show. If you would be able to help on any of the performances selling programmes or raffle tickets; serving teas and ice creams Joan would love to hear from you.

In common with previous music shows we don't have a stage manager as such but are looking for a volunteer to pull curtains and possibly move the odd table and chair on and off stage during the show. If you could help with this please contact Jackie Dodds who is producing the show this year.

Items Wanted

Do you have any of these things in your dressing up box that we could borrow??

Black tailcoat medium size (to fit a lady)

Charleston dress any colour (medium to large)

Flowery shirt (male large size)

Thank you.

To make contact please email langtoftplayers@gmail.com and your message will be passed on to the relevant person
